

We don't even know how to start, we feel so thankful for this Christmas Gifts that our son Ethan received (He was not going to get any presents this Christmas due to the recent hurricane that blew our roof & we had to fix alot of things in our house & all of our savings went into this cause & among other things). but we really, really feel so blessed and wanted to thank you all for being so ~~sp~~pendid & making all of ~~the~~ kids happy & putting smiles on their faces and ours too.

Thank you once again & Merry Christmas to you!

"...The blessing of the Lord be upon you...."

PSALM 129:8 KJV
